A Service of Thanksgiving The Life of Carol Margaret Loud

Thursday, July 18 2024 one o'clock in the afternoon

An asterisk (*) indicates a time to stand, in body or in spirit

Prelude Siciliano from Sonata No. 2 for Flute

Sarah Bayer, flute Philip Dietterich, organ

Welcome and Opening Prayer

Rev. Dr. Charlotte Wright

J.S. Bach

* Hymn "All Creatures of Our God and King" (1-4) #62

A Reading I Want to Age Like Sea Glass by Bernadette Noll

Remembrances of Family Richard and Martha Mezger

Anthem "Simple Gifts" Shaker Melody, arr. John Coates, Jr.

Remembrances of Friends Mary-Jean Miner

A Reading Wild Geese by Mary Oliver

Interlude "La Follia" Arcangelo Corelli

* Scriptures Psalm 150 (responsive p. 862)

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Reflection "...a time to mourn, and a time to dance"

Memorial Song "The Flowers of the Forest" Traditional Scottish

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Commendation

*Benediction

*Choral Response "Dona Nobis Pacem" 16th century. Canon, arr. Hal Hopson

Postlude "Winter", Theme 2 from "The Four Seasons" Antonio Vivaldi

Memorial Service Celebration and Thanksgiving

Carol Margaret Loud
June 9, 1934 – October 5, 2023
Chilmark Community Church
Chilmark, Massachusetts
July 18, 2024 1pm

Carol said she needed to live on the Vineyard because people here continued to dance even as they grew older.

And so she did.

Carol's dance is complete.

Nothing can be added;

nothing can be taken away.